FIA Awarded the Hartford Business Journal Best of Business Award for Private Wealth Management

Windsor, CT – February 10, 2017 – Fiduciary Investment Advisors (“FIA”) was recently awarded a Best of Business Award for Private Wealth Management by the Hartford Business Journal. Award recipients were honored at a ceremony at The Marquee in Hartford on January 26th.

“Our Wealth Advisory Services group is truly grateful to receive this award. It is a great privilege to be recognized alongside so many other successful businesses,” said Andrew Salak, Associate Director. “FIA is dedicated to providing the best investment advice and management to the families and individuals we serve. We look forward to continuing to work hard on their behalf.”

“We are very pleased that our Wealth Advisory Services group has been recognized with this award. The private client marketplace has been very receptive to our transparent model, which gives unbiased fiduciary advice to families to help them plan for their financial future,” noted Michael Goss, Executive Vice President.

This inaugural award was compiled by reader recommendations in 79 business categories, and winners were chosen from nearly 1,000 votes in an online poll. The winners in each category stand out for their professionalism and their commitment to customer service.
